

Do not limit XM Radio. If the NAB and its members want to win the competition, maybe they should offer a better product. I'm tired of people/organizations trying to use government and law to compete with companies that are more progressive and winning over customers. To the NAB: stop crying and whining and produce a better product and maybe I will listen. After hearing this tactic I will definitely not be tuning in to most of your shows.